

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

Director of Congressional Affairs

8 June 1988
OCA 88-1849

Judge Webster:

Following your call, Chairman Stokes did alert Mike O'Neil that he would be receiving the proposed language from us to put in the guidelines dealing with sensitive proprietaries. This is the language that Russ Bruemmer and I have worked out.

My staff will be meeting with Mike O'Neil tomorrow and it would be helpful if we could pass this language to them at that time.

Please advise.

John L. Helgersen

STAT

4. Limitation on Notification

If the Director of Central Intelligence certifies that it is essential to limit notification on a particular activity in order to meet extraordinary circumstances affecting the vital interest of the United State and to protect sensitive intelligence sources and methods, reports as to such activities shall be made in a manner that is agreed by the Director and the Chairman and Ranking Minority Member of the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence and Chairman and Vice-Chairman of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence.
